

Social Enterprise Corner – Southeast Asia (SEC-SEA)’s Forum by Thammasat Business School

SOUL to SALES: Invisible Markets to Infinite Opportunities

9 March 2014 13:00-16:30

Program	Time
Registration	12.00
Light Music Performance GSVC Southeast Asia Award Ceremony <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Video of Winners ● Award Ceremony 	13.00-13.30
Speaker 1: Lorie Loeb An artist as well as a technologist who seeks to spur the creativity that springs from the overlap between technology, art, animation, teaching and activism.	13.30-13.45
Speaker 2: Robert Esposito Founder of Coco Khmer, which creates business opportunities for low-income people in Cambodia by creating high-quality coconut oil-based products.	13.50-14.05
Speaker 3: Thalia Wheatley An expert in social psychology who tries to understand how aware people are to their own mental states, and others around them.	14.10-14.25
Speaker 4: Mathew Harp An impact investor who sees that high growth opportunities—and opportunities to stop poverty--come from taking care of people at the Bottom of the Pyramid.	14.30 – 14.45

Break and Music Performance	14.50 - 15.05
Speaker 5: Sasin Chalermklarp Well-known Thai activist for the environment, who recently completed a 388 km walk to protest against a dam project.	15.10-15.25
Speaker 6: Carlo Figà Talamanca Head of the Sustainable Green Fuel Enterprise in Cambodia helping to save the country's remaining forests and providing income and well-being for former garbage dump scavengers.	15.30-15.45
Speaker 7: Paul Herman San Francisco based impact investor whose HIP fund (Human Impact and Profitability) beats the S&P index.	15.50 - 16.05